Shown preparing potatoes for lunch are Margaret Mitten, Dorothy Beard, Bonnie Neil, Ann Pattison and Lorrie Woltz.

Elizabeth Wadel, Shirley Jones, Pauline Frey and Mary Shoemaker are caught in the act of preparing hot dogs.

Wilbur Piper, head janitor, is shown here performing one of his many tasks.

Pictured above are Miss Clark and some of her twelfth grade English students. During the year they study many authors and their works of literature.

Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Ketterer are pictured here talking over F.H.A. plans for future meetings. The F.H.A. sponsors many worthwhile projects during the school year.

SASHS PAYS TRIBUTE TO
WALTER REDDIG
BUSINESS MANAGER
1952-1968

THINGS HE DID FOR OUR
HIGH SCHOOL . . .

PLANS FOR
NEW SENIOR
HIGH SCHOOL

For almost 17 years Walter B. Reddig was business manager for the Shippensburg Area School System and in that time he learned the operation from the ground up. He knew the system better than any other local school official—from the early days of jointure to the present.

As Dr. Ramsay MacKenzie, president of the Shippensburg Area School Board points out, "He was a storehouse of facts and knowledge," from the status of pending legislation affecting schools to the "nuts and bolts" on every piece of equipment. What is even more important, he was dedicated to his work, devoting endless hours to it.

There is, as we have said many times, no indispensable person, but in his field Walt Reddig came nearer to being the indispensable man than any other person we know. He will be sorely missed and hard to replace.

SENIORS . . .

ALMA MATER

I.

All hail our high school,
Its tower and bell,
Willing and eager its
Praises to tell
To pledge allegiance,
We'll sing loud and long,
Shippensburg triumphant
Its glory in song.

Chorus

We love thee, Alma Mater,
And loud our voices raise,
For all your patient teachings,
This noble hymn of praise,
The world will need our service,
In life, at work or play,
But deep inside, shall be a pride,
In our Maroon and Grey.

II.

Lead on and serve well,
Ye, old grads and new,
Make your old high school
Be proud of you.
Mid all life's ventures,
If chance comes along,
Let's raise our voices
In this tribute song.

By Sarajane Angle (Custer) '50

Seniors are guided by their class officers who are elected by the members of the class. This year the officers of the senior class are Cathy Smith, secretary; Lynn Thrush, vice-president; Terry Nickles, president; and Brenda Hershey, treasurer.

School Experiences Prepare Seniors

As the members of the Class of 1970 approach the end of their high school education, each senior faces the unfolding of a new phase of life. For some the future includes further education toward a career among the professions; for others, immediate employment or service with America's armed forces.

Although we leave the halls and classrooms of SASHS, memories of the Junior-Senior Prom, the Greyhound teams, class trips, projects, and honors will linger with us. Combined with our formal studies, these experiences have helped shape the individual lives of each member of the Class of 1970.

The advisers for the Class of 1970 are Mr. Ronald Chandler, Miss Margaret Shaffer, Mr. James Saylor, and Mr. Kenneth Rineard. Serving as head adviser is Mr. Chandler. Appointed in the freshman year of the class, the advisers aid in planning class activities.

Lunch Brings Excitement

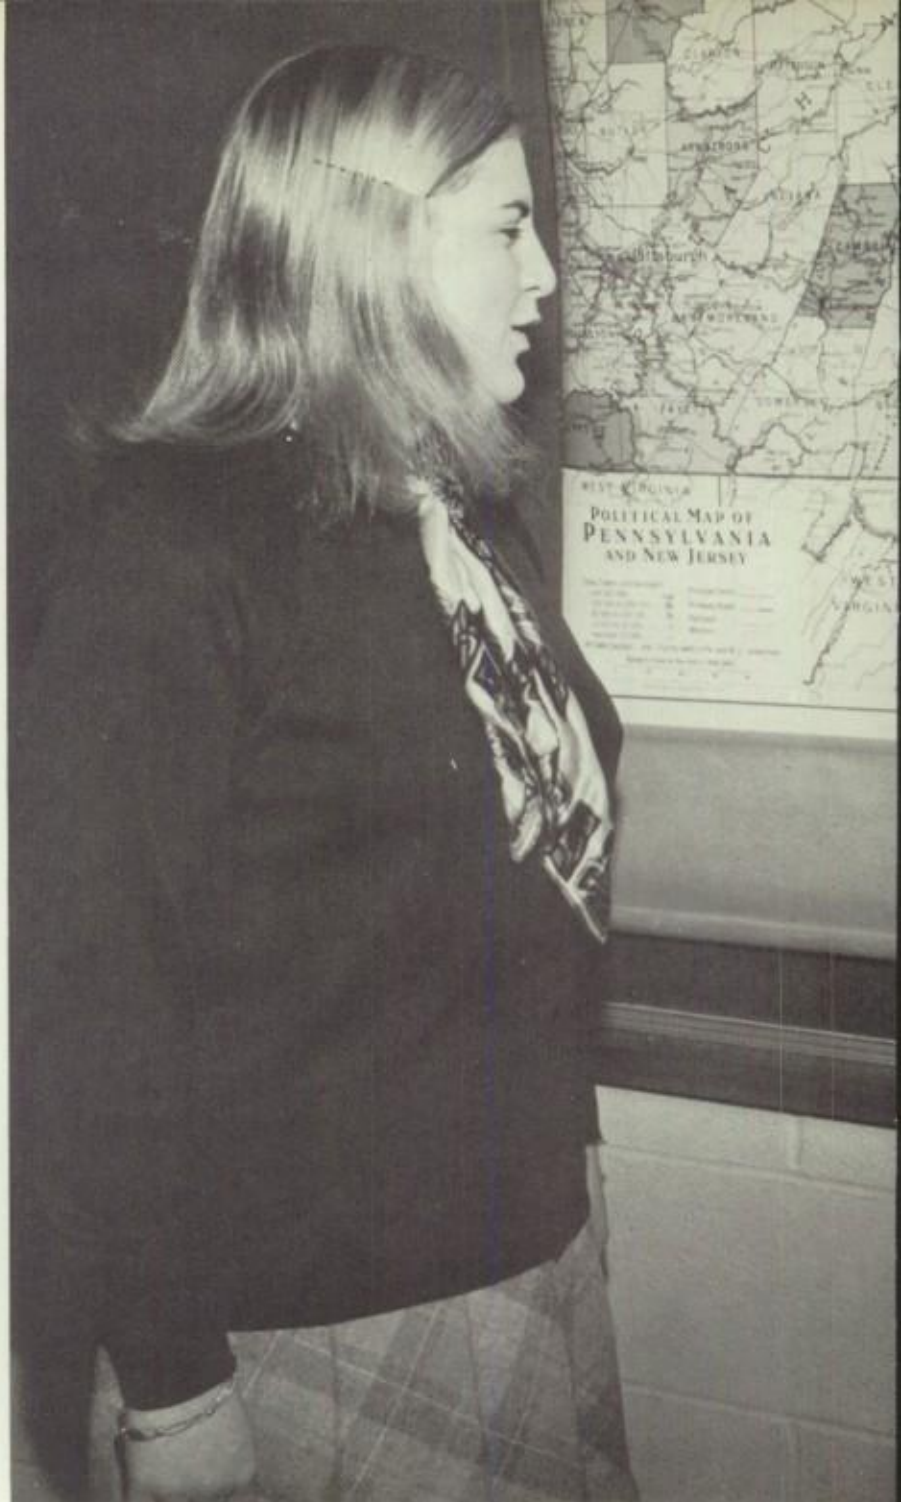

The Cameraman Catches Unaware Seniors

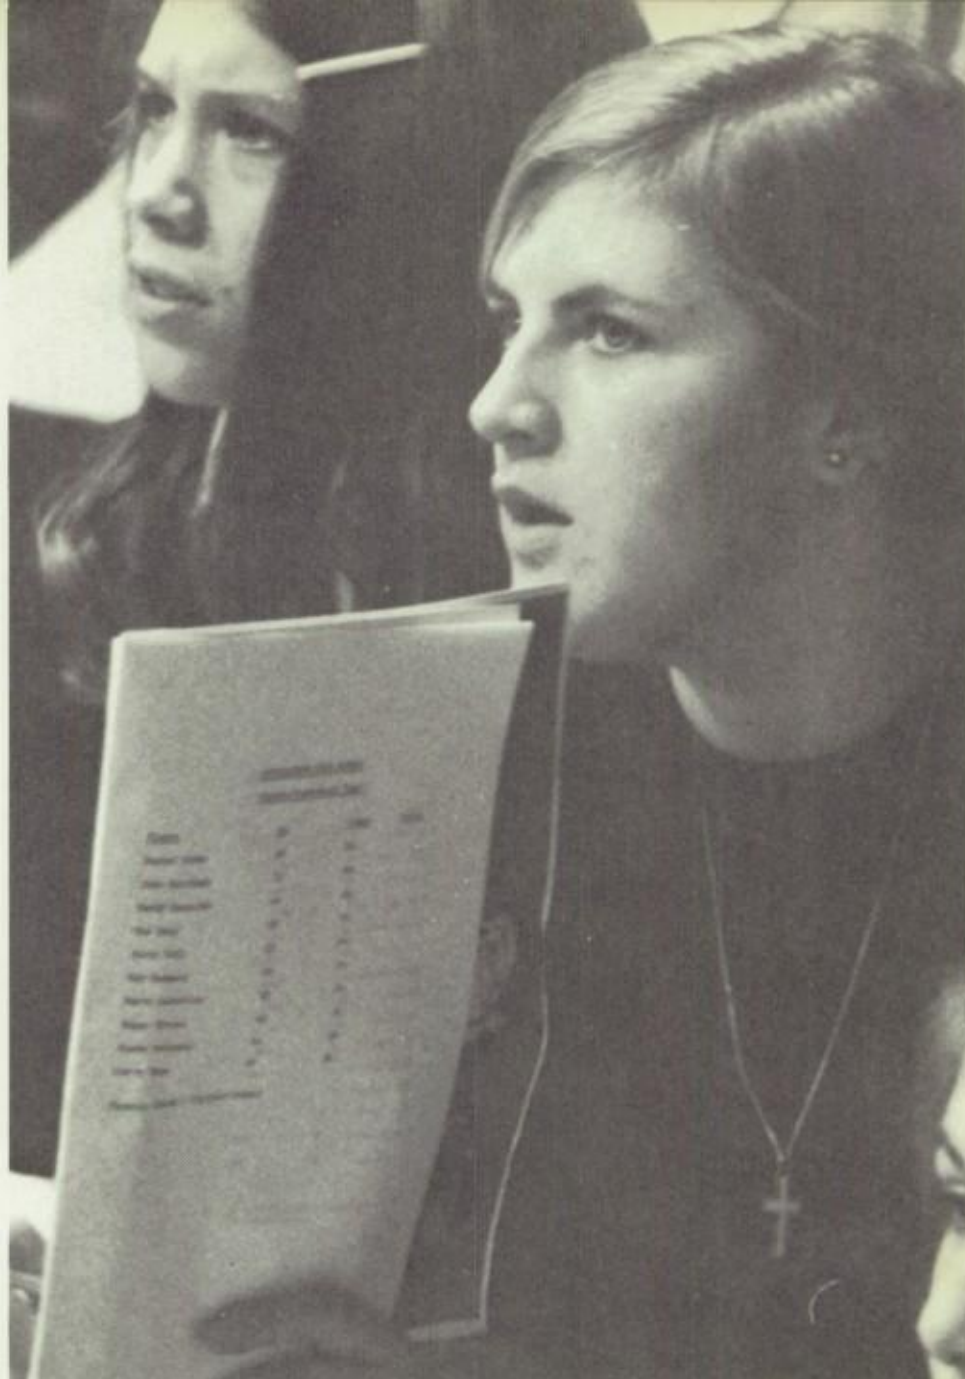

In the lobby, Louise Hofstede talks to her American sister, Linda Long.

Linda points to the map as she shows Louise where Shippensburg is located.

Louise Hofstede Hails from Holland As AFS Foreign Exchange Student

Louise Hofstede, the 1969-70 American Field Service foreign exchange student, came from Grenvenbicht, Holland. She resided with Miss Linda Long and family of 315 North Fayette Street, during her year's stay in Shippensburg.

Louise comes from a family of five. She has two sisters, Marjo, 19, and Ingrid, 16. Mr. and Mrs. Hofstede own an independent grocery store.

As a senior at Shippensburg Area Senior High School, Louise was enrolled in the academic course of study. She thought our school was much easier than the schools in Holland because there they take eighteen subjects, and in our schools we also have many activities which the schools in Holland do not have. Louise also remarked that the students in the United States seem to be more informal or relaxed in the classroom than do the students in Holland.

Some of Louise's interests include the study of foreign countries and languages, music, swimming, and skating. At SASHS, Louise was the vice-president of the International Relations Club, and she participated in intramural basketball. She was a member of a Senior Girl Scout troop and was a member of Campus Life.

Louise will tour the United States before returning to Holland where she plans to attend college.

MOTTO
"Knowledge is the key to freedom"

The crown bearers for the 1969 Prom were Lisa Merchant and Tod Sherman. They are shown dancing with the other couples.

The king and queen are shown dancing with Robert Rotz and Francis Justice. The guest band is playing in the background while other couples look on.

Jr.-Sr. Prom

The 1969 Prom Court includes Christine Kern, Marlene Smith, Francis Justice, Barbara Aument, Beverly Beyers, Tod Sherman, Reid Pletcher, Beth Burkhart, Lisa Merchant, Dennis Petteys, Roy Dyarman, Robert Rotz, Richard Fogelsanger and Kenneth Shoap.

Several couples are shown dancing to "Love is Blue", the theme of the 1969 Junior-Senior Prom. They are Beth Burkhart, Reid Pletcher, Barb Aument, Roy Dyarman, Beverly Beyers, and Dennis Petteys.

Couples Dance to "Love Is Blue"

To the left, couples watch as the Queen's dance takes place. Shown in the background is a mural which was painted by members of the junior class.

The gazebo, made of navy blue and light blue tissue paper, was set in the middle of the room, with a chandelier hanging between it and the thrones. Under this was a fountain with running water. In the background are the king and queen's thrones.

Shown to the left, is the entrance to the Prom. It is in the form of a canopy made out of white, red, and pink tissue paper. Several plants were set beside the entrance.

The 1969-70 edition of the Greyhounds battled their way to a 16-4 season. They achieved this success because of determination, desire, and defense. These are basically the attributes necessary for a successful basketball team. However, in order, to wrap this recipe together one needs young men who are dedicated to the above formula.

During this basketball season, Shippensburg was fortunate to have the type of young men that achieve. They did so because, above all, they wanted to be successful, and they subjected themselves as individuals for the more important concept of team unity. The dedicated attitude of the 69-70 Hounds should serve as an example for all those who will follow.

Sincerely,

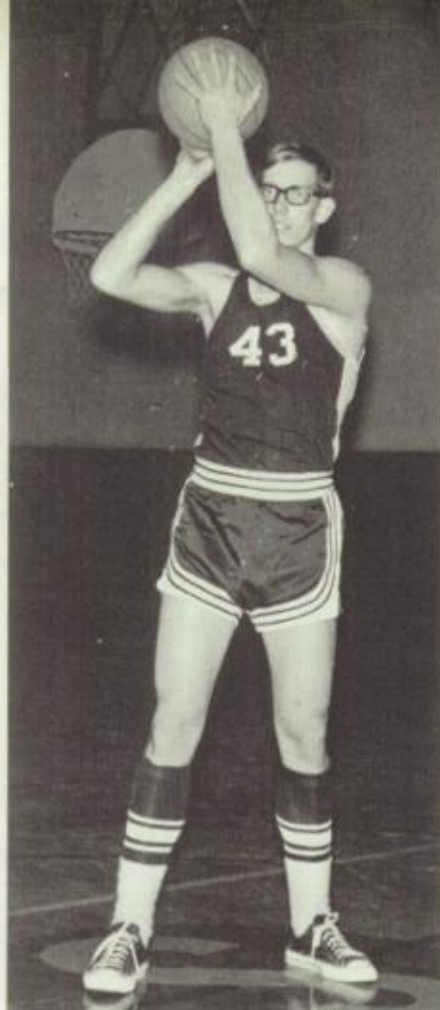

Coach Dooley

Seasons may come
And Seasons may go,
But we'll remember always
Associations we've had with you.

Our road at times was difficult to travel
When we tried to unravel
the mysteries of life,
But our pathway now
gives the opportunity
For us to find in a community
A place that is worthwhile.

We've known the snows of winter
And the tulips in the spring
And everything a memory
Of you can bring.
